01 | Your 2027 Overview

For Aquarius Moon natives, 2027 highlights financial discipline, personal effort, partnerships and the need to balance opportunity with practical responsibilities. Saturn moves from the second to third house in June and returns to the second in October. Jupiter activates the sixth, seventh and eighth houses during the year. Rahu in the twelfth and Ketu in the sixth highlight expenses, routines and thoughtful boundaries. These are traditional astrological themes rather than guaranteed events.

Major sidereal planetary transits

Jupiter: Leo (seventh) at the start of January; Cancer (sixth) from approximately 25 January; Leo (seventh) from 26 June; Virgo (eighth) from 26 November.
Saturn: Pisces (second) until approximately 3 June; Aries (third) from 3 June to 20 October; Pisces (second) afterward.
Rahu: Capricorn (twelfth) during 2027. Ketu: Cancer (sixth) during 2027.

Your three priorities

Build an emergency fund, communicate clearly in marriage and business partnerships, and maintain consistent work and wellbeing routines. The June-to-October Saturn transit marks a temporary pause in the final phase of Aquarius Moon sade sati; it resumes when Saturn returns to Pisces.

Transit dates are approximate sidereal sign ingresses. Verify with a consistent panchang and ayanamsa before publication or choosing auspicious dates. A general Moon-sign report cannot determine personal outcomes.

02 | Career, Employment & Business

Career direction

The first half of the year favors improving daily systems and addressing outstanding work tasks. Jupiter in the sixth from late January through late June can emphasize service, employment, workplace dynamics and competition. Track deliverables and avoid relying on unverified promises.

Professional initiative

Saturn in the third from June to October traditionally highlights persistence, writing, communication, practical learning and self-directed work. Use this interval to develop a portfolio, strengthen outreach and build skills patiently.

Business and partnerships

Jupiter in the seventh from late June to late November brings client relationships, negotiations and collaboration into focus. Discuss roles and contracts in writing. Ketu in the sixth may encourage stepping back from unproductive disputes, but do not neglect obligations.

03 | Money, Savings & Property

Income and household budget

Saturn in the second early and late in 2027 asks for a disciplined approach to savings, family spending and commitments. Review subscriptions, repayments and essential expenses. Avoid making financial decisions solely on astrological timing.

Expenses, investments and joint assets

Rahu in the twelfth is traditionally associated with foreign links, travel costs, private spending and the need for stronger expense tracking. From late November, eighth-house Jupiter highlights taxes, insurance, loans and shared finances. Check paperwork carefully and seek qualified advice for major investments.

Home and property

Property planning benefits from thorough verification of title, financing and maintenance costs. Avoid rushing relocation or major purchases due to temporary enthusiasm. The natal chart, not Moon sign alone, is required for personal property timing.

04 | Love, Marriage & Family

Marriage and serious relationships

From late June through November, Jupiter in the seventh traditionally draws attention to marriage, commitment and partnership discussions. This is an opportunity for meaningful conversations, not a guarantee of marriage or reconciliation.

Communication and expectations

Second-house Saturn early and late in the year emphasizes family values, careful speech and realistic financial expectations. Listen without defensiveness and agree on shared priorities. The June-to-October third-house transit can support constructive dialogue.

Business partnerships and family balance

Review agreements and avoid mixing personal emotions with contractual obligations. Rahu in the twelfth may create competing demands on time and expenses; set boundaries and plan quality time with loved ones.

05 | Wellbeing, Education & Travel

Health and daily routines

Sixth-house Jupiter from late January to late June and Ketu in the sixth throughout the year make routines, workload and practical self-care recurring themes in traditional readings. Maintain sleep, exercise and appropriate professional healthcare. Astrology is not a diagnostic method.

Learning and communication

Saturn in the third from June to October can reward steady study, writing and repeated practice. Focus on one professional skill, certification or communication goal rather than scattering your effort.

Travel and overseas matters

Rahu in the twelfth may coincide with interest in overseas connections or private retreats in traditional interpretations. Plan costs, visas and documents carefully. Avoid assuming foreign travel or relocation is guaranteed.

06 | Monthly Outlook: January–June

JANUARY

Jupiter begins in the seventh and moves to the sixth around 25 January. Clarify partnership expectations and reset daily work routines.

FEBRUARY

Review job priorities, outstanding tasks and financial commitments. Improve scheduling and communication at home.

MARCH

Maintain a savings buffer and track discretionary expenses. Focus on dependable professional results.

APRIL

Address workplace misunderstandings constructively. Build sustainable habits rather than making rushed commitments.

MAY

Prepare a skills plan and reassess debts, savings and household obligations ahead of June transits.

JUNE

Saturn enters the third around 3 June, temporarily pausing sade sati; Jupiter moves to the seventh around 26 June. Build initiative and discuss partnerships.

07 | Monthly Outlook: July–December

JULY

Strengthen client relationships and marriage communication. Negotiate agreements with realistic timelines.

AUGUST

Use persistent effort for career projects and learning. Balance collaborative opportunities with a clear household budget.

SEPTEMBER

Review partnership goals and any overseas or travel-related spending. Keep promises practical.

Saturn returns to Pisces around 20 October, resuming the final sade sati phase. Renew focus on family responsibilities and savings.

NOVEMBER

Partnership discussions remain prominent until Jupiter enters the eighth around 26 November. Then review shared assets and obligations.

DECEMBER

Audit insurance, taxes, loans and joint budgets. Plan 2028 with measured financial goals and steady routines.
