01 | Your 2027 Overview

For Capricorn Moon natives, 2027 is a year of carefully balancing personal identity, partnership commitments, home responsibilities and financial resilience. Saturn temporarily shifts from the third to the fourth house, while Jupiter moves through the eighth, seventh, eighth and ninth houses. Rahu in Capricorn and Ketu in Cancer emphasize self-awareness and relationship clarity. These are traditional interpretive themes, not guaranteed outcomes.

Major sidereal planetary transits

Jupiter: Leo (eighth) at the start of January; Cancer (seventh) from approximately 25 January; Leo (eighth) from 26 June; Virgo (ninth) from 26 November.
Saturn: Pisces (third) until approximately 3 June; Aries (fourth) from 3 June to 20 October; Pisces (third) afterward.
Rahu: Capricorn (first) during 2027. Ketu: Cancer (seventh) during 2027.

Three priorities

Communicate clearly with partners and family, build a robust household budget and approach property decisions patiently. January through June brings partnership matters into focus. June through October emphasizes home responsibilities; late November favors education, mentors and long-term direction.

Dates are approximate sidereal sign ingresses and should be verified against a consistent panchang and ayanamsa before publication or muhurta. Capricorn Moon Saturn sade sati ended in 2025; the temporary fourth-house transit in 2027 is traditionally called Kantaka Shani or fourth-house Dhaiya.

02 | Career, Employment & Business

Professional development

Third-house Saturn early and late in the year supports patient skill-building, communications and self-directed effort. June to October shifts attention to domestic logistics that can affect work. Focus on dependable systems and avoid promising results that depend on others.

Employment and workplace decisions

January to June brings seventh-house Jupiter into focus: partnerships, client-facing roles and professional negotiations may be prominent. Review contracts carefully. Late November ninth-house Jupiter is traditionally associated with training, mentors and wider professional perspective.

Business and entrepreneurship

Business partnerships can offer useful discussions, but Ketu in the seventh encourages clarity about shared expectations. Record roles, deadlines and payments in writing. From late June through November, eighth-house Jupiter favors reviewing taxes, financing and risk rather than speculative expansion.

03 | Money, Savings & Property

Income and savings

Keep a consistent budget and protect emergency savings. Rahu in the first can encourage ambitious reinvention; check whether spending matches long-term goals. Compare major purchases against real income rather than transit optimism.

Investments, loans and shared assets

Jupiter in the eighth at the start of January and again from late June through November highlights joint resources, taxes, insurance and financial paperwork. Avoid excessive leverage and verify documents with qualified advisers before major decisions.

Home and property

Saturn enters the fourth around 3 June and returns to the third around 20 October. Traditional fourth-house Saturn themes include household obligations, property repairs and the need for patient family decisions. Inspect legal title, financing and maintenance costs; no property result is guaranteed.

04 | Love, Marriage & Family

Romance and commitment

Seventh-house Jupiter from late January to late June can bring relationship expectations, marriage discussions and collaboration into focus. Ketu in the same house asks for honest communication and emotional presence. Do not interpret a transit alone as a marriage guarantee.

Marriage and business partnerships

Define responsibilities and resolve misunderstandings promptly. Existing relationships benefit from realistic plans for money, time and shared commitments. Personal marriage timing requires full birth-chart factors, dashas and individual circumstances.

Family relationships

Saturn’s fourth-house interval may bring practical home responsibilities. Create space for respectful conversations and avoid letting career pressures spill into family interactions. Rahu in the first can intensify personal priorities; listen to others as well.

05 | Wellbeing, Education & Travel

Wellbeing and routines

Balance workload with sleep, exercise and sustainable routines. During the fourth-house Saturn interval, reduce unnecessary domestic stress where possible. Astrology cannot diagnose health conditions; seek appropriate medical advice when needed.

Study and professional learning

Late November Jupiter moves into the ninth house, a traditional emphasis on higher education, teachers, ethics and expanding knowledge. Plan meaningful courses or qualifications with realistic timelines.

Travel and relocation

The year may involve home-related planning and later renewed interest in educational or long-distance travel. Budget carefully, check documentation and do not treat transit interpretations as certainty.

06 | Monthly Outlook: January–June

JANUARY

Jupiter shifts from the eighth to the seventh around 25 January. Reassess shared finances and discuss partnership expectations.

Client relationships, marriage conversations and collaboration may take focus. Clarify boundaries and written agreements.
