01 | Your 2027 Overview

For Scorpio Moon natives, 2027 centers on professional direction, steady effort, learning, personal discipline and long-term gains. Jupiter moves from the tenth to the ninth, back to the tenth and finally to the eleventh house. Saturn temporarily enters the sixth from the fifth, while Rahu in the third and Ketu in the ninth emphasize independent effort, communication and reassessing beliefs. This is a general Moon-sign interpretation, not a promise of events.

Major sidereal planetary transits

Jupiter: Leo (tenth) at the start of January; Cancer (ninth) from approximately 25 January; Leo (tenth) from 26 June; Virgo (eleventh) from 26 November.
Saturn: Pisces (fifth) until approximately 3 June; Aries (sixth) from 3 June to 20 October; Pisces (fifth) afterward.
Rahu: Capricorn (third) during 2027. Ketu: Cancer (ninth) during 2027.

Three priorities

Invest in learning and professional preparation early in the year. From June through October, strengthen work routines and manage competition constructively. From late June, career matters gain emphasis; late November brings an eleventh-house focus on networks and longer-term gains.

Dates are approximate India-based sidereal sign ingresses; exact timings vary by chosen ephemeris and ayanamsa. Verify against a consistent panchang for publication or muhurta.

02 | Career, Employment & Business

Career progression

Jupiter in the ninth from late January to late June supports a traditional emphasis on mentors, education and purposeful planning. Its return to the tenth from late June to late November brings professional duties, visibility and leadership into focus. Keep your work portfolio updated and evaluate promotions or job changes realistically.

Job, competition and daily work

Saturn in the sixth from June to October can symbolize the need for disciplined routines, patience with colleagues and steady resolution of disputes. Manage workload, documentation and deadlines carefully. No transit guarantees victory in competition.

Business and entrepreneurship

Use the first half for market research, skills and legal preparation. From July onward, evaluate expansion only when demand, cash flow and operational capacity support it. Third-house Rahu may encourage bold communication; verify promises before signing.

03 | Money, Savings & Property

Income and savings

Focus on regular savings throughout the year. Jupiter entering the eleventh in late November can traditionally symbolize gains and useful networks; treat this as an invitation to build sustainable earning systems, not a guaranteed windfall.

Investments and debt

Avoid speculative commitments made under pressure. Fifth-house Saturn early and late in the year favors patient, research-based decisions over risky shortcuts. Separate emergency savings from investment capital and seek licensed advice for material decisions.

Property and family resources

Plan home or property decisions around affordability, documentation and family consensus. Check ownership records, financing terms and repair costs before making commitments. Moon-sign transits alone cannot determine purchase timing.

04 | Love, Marriage & Family

Love and emotional commitments

Saturn in the fifth at the start and end of the year traditionally encourages maturity in romance, honest communication and realistic expectations. Avoid interpreting a temporary delay as a definite relationship outcome.

Marriage and partnerships

Work and learning commitments can compete with relationship time. Discuss schedules, shared finances and long-term plans calmly. Personal marriage prospects require assessment of the natal seventh house, Venus/Jupiter, dashas and other chart factors.

Children and family

Fifth-house themes include children, education and creative projects. Give these matters consistent attention and avoid rigid assumptions about timing or outcomes.

05 | Health, Learning & Travel

Wellbeing

From June through October, sixth-house Saturn can serve as a reminder to maintain routines, rest and sustainable work habits. Astrology is not a diagnostic method; consult qualified medical professionals for symptoms or treatment.

Higher education and mentors

Late January to June is symbolically supportive of advanced learning, certifications, mentors and revisiting long-term goals. Ketu in the ninth can encourage questioning inherited assumptions; use discernment rather than rejecting useful advice impulsively.

Travel and communication

Ninth-house Jupiter can correspond with learning-related travel early in the year. Third-house Rahu may encourage media, marketing and independent projects. Check travel documents, costs and communications carefully.

06 | Monthly Outlook: January–June

JANUARY

Jupiter shifts from the tenth to the ninth around 25 January. Wrap up career reviews and define education, mentorship or travel goals.
